PREFACE

January 29,1921

Whereas: We wish to state, in assembling ourselves together, to organize a Congregational Holiness Church that it is with a spirit of sorrow that such a move becomes necessary, but we do honestly feel that the Spirit of the Lord demands a move of this kind. So, it is in obedience to God and respect to His humble followers that we organize a Congregational Holiness Church, setting forth the faith that is taught by the doctrines of Jesus Christ and the Apostles, which bring to one and all who accept salvation from sin and sinning and the Baptism with the Holy Ghost.

Our purpose is to follow the teachings of the Bible. So, in form of government, we believe in a Congregational Government, while no actions taken by the few or many will glorify God unless we let the love of God rule in our hearts and lives. But we observe how both State and Church have suffered when a few hold the reins of government. So, knowing by experience or observation the injustice and suffering that is brought on individuals when the whole assembly is not allowed a voice, we do, with the feeling of duty we owe to God and His followers, also with courage, organize the Congregational Holiness Church, believing a cry is already going up from many pure hearts for such a church. So, it is with a purpose in our hearts to glorify God that we present this form of government and Articles of Faith.

THE CONGREGATIONAL HOLINESS CHURCH
ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. There is but One living and true God, the great Creator, and there are three Persons in the Godhead: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. Genesis 1:1-27; Matthew 28:19; I John 5:7.
2. We believe the Holy Bible to be the inspired Word of God. II Timothy 3:16; II Peter 1:20,21.
3. We believe we are justified when we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus Christ. Mark 1:15; Acts 13:38,39; Romans 5:1.
4. We believe Sanctification to be a definite work of grace subsequent to Salvation. St. John 15:2; 17:16,17; Ephesians 5:25-27; I John 1:9.
5. We believe in the Baptism with the Holy Ghost, and speaking with other tongues as the Spirit gives utterance to be the initiatory evidence of this experience. Acts 2:4; 19:6; 10:44-46. Since the Spirit gives the utterance when one is baptized with the Holy Ghost, we reject the practice of one telling another what to say in order to speak in tongues. We also reject the teaching that one who has received the Baptism of the Holy Ghost can speak in tongues at will, without the Spirit prompting the utterance.
6. We believe in divine healing for the body. Acts 3:2-12; 9:32-43; 5:15,16; James 5:14. We do not condemn medical science.
7. We believe every blessing we receive from God, including divine healing, comes through the merits of the atonement. Romans 5:11; James 1:16,17.
8. We believe in the operation of the nine Gifts of the Spirit. We also believe in the manifestation of the nine Fruit of the Spirit and recognize that these should be present in the life of every believer. 1 Corinthians 12:1-12; Galatians 5:22-23
9. We believe in the imminent rapture of the church, and the personal, premillennial Second Coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Acts 1:10,11; I Thessalonians 4:13-18; Revelation 1:7.
10. We, as a church, believe in the eternal redemption of all saints who are faithful to the end. Matthew 24:13; Revelation 2:10. We reject the theory of “once in grace always in grace” regardless of conduct. I Corinthians 10:12; Galatians 5:4.

11. We believe all who die out of Christ will be punished eternally, but those who die in Him shall share in His glory forever. Daniel 12:2; Matthew 25:46; John 5:29; Jude 7.
12. We believe the Bride of Christ is composed of the entire spiritual church. I Corinthians 12:25; II Corinthians 11:2; Galatians 3:28,29; Ephesians 4:16; 5:23-33; Revelation 19:7,8.
13. We believe in the sacredness of marriage between one man and one woman. We promote commitment to strong family values. Ephesians 5:31-33; 6:1-4; Hebrews 13:4; Matthew 19:5; Leviticus 18:22; Genesis 2:24.
14. We require all our ministers to speak the same thing and that there be no division among us in doctrine concerning our Articles of Faith. I Corinthians 1:10.

FORM OF GOVERNMENT

1. This body of worshipers shall be known as the Congregational Holiness Church. Its form of government shall be congregational. We observe the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order as our standard of business procedure.

3. Anyone who belongs to Oath Bound Secret Societies will not be received as a member of this Church. Reference to "Oath Bound Secret Societies" does not apply to Labor Unions not oath bound. Matthew 24:26; St. John 18:20; I Corinthians 6:14,18; Ephesians 5:12.
4. Anyone having a spirit of uncleanness, such as homosexuality or lesbianism does not qualify for membership in the Congregational Holiness Church. Romans 1:26-32.

At the death of a C.H.C. minister or his/her spouse, a letter of notification will be sent from General Headquarters to every participating minister. Each minister receiving the letter would then send the stated survivor a $10 love gift. If there is not a surviving spouse, the gifts would be sent to the estate. Participation in this fund would be voluntary. Every minister would be given an opportunity to become a participant. If the minister chooses not to be a participant, his or her surviving spouse will not receive a benefit. To receive the love gift, one must have been Ordained or Licensed in good standing for a minimum of five (5) years.

The Secretary of Finance must be bonded.

CHURCH ORDINANCES

WATER BAPTISM:

We believe all Christians should be baptized with water. Baptism shall be administered by immersion by an ordained minister, or pastor if not ordained, “In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost,” according to the command of our blessed Lord. Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16.

THE LORD’S SUPPER AND FOOT WASHING:

All Christians are invited to partake of the Lord’s Supper and foot washing with us. Matthew 26:26-29; St. John 13:14.

CONCERNING WAR

Although we believe that government is ordained of God and that God’s children should be subject unto the higher powers according to Romans 13:1-7, we believe that war is inevitable as long as we are in a sinful world. Therefore, we ask our members to follow their own conscience concerning the issue of war.

CONCERNING SEXUAL IMMORALITY

In recent years, the world has witnessed an increase in sexually related crimes. Unfortunately, some of these incidents have occurred within the church. Since laws differ from state to state, we strongly recommend that you learn the legal requirements in the area where you live. If you are ever confronted with an incident of this nature, you must immediately fulfill all legal and moral requirements. As quickly as the legal aspects have been completed, you should begin to minister to the spiritual and emotional needs of all parties involved. If you feel you are not qualified to provide adequate guidance, seek professional help to ensure the most favorable outcome for all who have been affected.

MINISTERS RESTORATION PROGRAM

When a minister's license has been revoked, the following steps are to be used as a guideline to restore such a one back into the ministry. Gal. 6:1; II Cor. 5:19.

THE ELEMENTS OF FULL RESTORATION:

1. Confession and repentance. This is of course the first step necessary. Without this there can be no restoration back to God or to the Church. The person must be willing to confess their sin and repent; thus forsaking their sin.

2. They must be willing to go into the history of the events that led to the fall. This may be painful, but it will allow the fallen person to discover the circumstances surrounding the fall and avoid such in the future. The person helping them with this area must keep utmost confidence and not spread the details of the experience.
3. They must be willing to submit to Godly persons and follow their restrictions. The person who has fallen must understand that they will have to step down from the ministry until the time they have completed the program. Unless a person is willing to submit to those over him or her in the Lord, they will not be considered restored and will not receive their license.
4. They need comfort and assurance. No one will know better than this person the effects of their sin. We, as a Christian community, must be willing to give support during this period of their life. We must always encourage the person who has fallen and not be guilty of destroying the wounded.
5. They must have an advocate to speak for them. The person assigned to help them back to ministry will be their advocate. They will speak in behalf of the fallen.
6. When the person is restored, there must be an official declaration of this restoration made. At the end of the restoration period, a declaration will be made to all parties in positions of leadership stating the person is restored and returned to service with the recommendation of the presbytery. This was the ultimate goal of Jesus and must also be our ultimate goal.

MARRIAGE CEREMONY

We are assembled in the presence of God and before these witnesses, for the purpose of joining this man and this woman in Holy Matrimony, which is an honorable estate, instituted by God in the time of man’s innocency, signifying unto us the mystical union that exists between Christ and His church. If anyone can show just cause why these persons may not be joined together, let him now speak, or else forever hereafter hold his peace.

(The minister shall then say unto the man)

Will thou have this woman to be thy lawful wedded wife, to love, to honor, comfort and keep her in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, keep thee only unto her so long as you both shall live?

The man shall answer: I will.

(Then the minister says unto the woman)

Will thou have this man to be thy lawful wedded husband, to obey, love, honor, comfort and keep him in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him so long as you both shall live?

The woman shall answer: I will.

(Then the minister says unto them, "Join right hands.")

Whom God has joined together, let no man put asunder. I pronounce thee husband and wife.

DOUBLE-RING CEREMONY:

Dearly beloved, we are gathered together here in the sight of God, and in the face of this company, to join together this man and this woman in Holy Matrimony which is an honorable estate, instituted by God in the time of, man's innocency, which holy estate Christ adorned and beatified with His presence and first miracle that He wrought in Cana of Galilee, and is commended of St. Paul to be honorable among all men; and, therefore, is not by any to be entered into unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, discreetly, advisedly, soberly, and in the fear of God. Into this holy estate these two persons present come now to be joined. If anyone can show just cause why they may not be lawfully joined together, let him now speak, or else hereafter forever hold his peace.

_____, will thou have this woman to be thy wedded wife, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Will thou love her, comfort her, honor, and keep her in sickness and in health; and, forsaking all others, keep thee only unto her, so long as ye both shall live?

The man shall answer: I will.

_____, will thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy estate of Matrimony? Will thou love him, cherish and comfort him, honor, and keep him in sickness and in health; and forsaking all others, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?

The woman shall answer: I will.

Then shall the minister say: Who giveth this woman to be married to this man? The father or person giving the bride away will say: I do.

(The minister taking the ring shall deliver it unto the man to be put upon the fourth finger of the woman's left hand.)

With this ring I thee wed, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

(Likewise the woman receives the ring from the minister, places it upon the man's hand and repeats after the minister.)

With this ring I thee wed, and with all my worldly goods I thee endow in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. (Then the minister shall say unto them "Join right hands.") For as much as _____ and _____ have consented together in Holy Wedlock, and have witnessed the same before God and this company, and thereto have given and pledged their troth, each to the other, and have declared the same by giving and receiving a ring, and by joining hands, I pronounce that they are husband and wife, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

MISSION USA

MISSION USA BY-LAWS:

1. This will be a full time appointed position with an office at the International Headquarters in Griffin, Georgia. Regular office hours as outlined in the General Headquarters Management and Personnel Manual are to be kept by the administrator of Mission USA unless he is involved in matters relating to his official duties which may require him to be out of the office. Official duties are set forth in the following By-Laws. This administrator will be appointed by the General Superintendent and approved by the General Executive Board. The term of office shall be at the discretion of the General Superintendent and the General Executive Board.
2. He shall reside in the home provided for him on the General Headquarters property.
3. The administrator must be a member of the Congregational Holiness Church with good report.
4. The administrator of Mission USA will work with each District Evangelism Coordinator and Christian Education Director. He may, at his discretion, invite them to attend special called meetings. These meetings should be held in Griffin, unless approved by the General Superintendent. A copy of the minutes of these meetings shall be given to the General Superintendent for future reference.
5. The administrator of Mission USA will serve as the editor of The Gospel Messenger.
6. The salary shall be congruent with the other full time department heads.
7. The administrator of Mission USA shall be given paid vacation days in accordance with the General Headquarters Management and Personnel Manual. He shall keep the General Superintendent informed of all the activities of his office, and shall furnish him with an itinerary monthly.
8. The Mission USA Department will be governed by these MISSION USA BY-LAWS.

EVANGELISM AND HOME MISSIONS

1. The Mission USA Department shall assume responsibility, and do all within its power, for the spread of the Gospel within the boundaries of the United States and Canada.
2. The Mission USA Statement of Purpose shall be:
 - A. The Congregational Holiness Church, Inc., is committed to the Great Commission, “Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature.” (Matthew 28:29; Mark 16:15) It will take the active support of every licensed minister and member in the Congregational Holiness Church working in harmony with the entire body of Christ to fulfill this commission for soul winning.
 - B. The Mission USA Department is charged with the responsibility of implementing the evangelistic efforts within the confines of the United States and Canada. In order to accomplish this task, the entire church must be committed to the work of God and to the salvation of souls. To be successful we must be people of prayer and vision. We believe God uses human instruments to carry out this work, but they must be empowered by the Holy Ghost. When we, led by the Spirit, and organized as a single unit, work together, the task can and will be accomplished.
 - C. Evangelism is discipling new believers, planting churches and helping believers to discover, develop and use their God given abilities to win others to Christ. Evangelism is being involved in urban, prison and nursing home ministries. The establishing of home groups and a one to one mentoring training ministry should be considered evangelism.

1. This department shall have a Executive Director of World Missions, and a board composed of six (6) members which shall be appointed by the General Executive Board and the General Superintendent, and approved by the General Committee. The Executive Director of World Missions will serve as chairman of the World Missions Board. An assistant director and a recording secretary shall be appointed from the World Missions Board. This Board shall meet no less than quarterly. The Board shall invite District Mission Promoters to enhance knowledge of general programs involving missions, at least twice yearly.
2. The World Mission Executive Director must be at least 30 years of age and must have been an ordained minister with the Congregational Holiness Church, with good report, for ten (10) consecutive years and must have a minimum of three (3) years pastoral experience. He/she must have experience working in the World Missions field.

Joint Agreement On Missions Cooperation
Congregational Holiness Church
Church of God Mountain Assembly
International Pentecostal Church Of Christ
Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church

Preamble - Whereas the combined missions efforts of the Congregational Holiness Church, the Church of God Mountain Assembly, the International Pentecostal Church of Christ, and the Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Churches span across the globe, at times overlapping, and the high cost of administration and travel making frequent overnight/support trips unfeasible, the above named denominations agree to the following limited efforts of cooperation.

Courtesy Visits to One Another's Fields

I. Definitions.

- A. Host Denomination - The denomination whose field station is being visited.
- B. Visiting Denomination - The denomination whose group will be visiting.
- C. Traveling Party - The actual visiting group.
- D. Field Station - Term used to denote any or all American or native denominational activity or mission activities, i.e. churches, church offices, schools, orphanages, etc.

II. Initiation of Visit Plans.

- A. Each denomination shall keep the other participating denominations informed as to the location and nature of their field activities.
- B. The traveling party shall inform the host denomination of the dates of their travel and the specific dates when they may be available to travel to the host site.
- C. The host denomination shall respond with the level of their interest and the host denomination shall make the initial contact with the field to ascertain the interest in having a visit.
- D. After the host denomination has initiated the communication with their field station and has informed the traveling group, the traveling group is free to contact the field station to arrange the particulars of the visit.

III. Scope of Visits.

- A. The traveling party will conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the usual and accepted standards of interdenominational ethics.
 - 1. The primary objective of the visit is to encourage the loyalty of the field station and its constituents to the host denomination.
 - 2. While visiting the field station and its constituents, the visitors are representatives of the host denomination. References to American denominations and people shall be in referring to the host denomination, not the visitor's denomination. References to the visitor's own denomination shall only come as a response to a question or during the initial introduction, which shall include the terms of the visit.
 - 3. The traveling party shall not encourage complaints against the host denomination which may naturally come due to dissatisfaction over funding, visiting, etc. The role of the traveling party in this instance is to function as they would want others to treat them if the shoe was on the other foot. Assurances can be given that the visitors will share the concerns with the host denomination upon their return.
 - 4. Any forwarding of funds to the field station by the traveling party should first be cleared with the host denomination to avoid the appearance of impropriety.

B. Functional Tasks to be Performed.

1. Overview of the work.

- a. Information, pictures, testimonies, etc., should be gathered to enhance the awareness of the host denomination of their field station.
- b. The encouragement of the people on the field should be a premier goal of the visit.
- c. If the host denomination desires, a general overview of stewardship issues may be gathered. Do the results of the work merit present and future investment? Is the image of the host denomination merited by the actual ministry being performed? Are there any ethical concerns? Is there evidence of a dual membership status?

IV. Cost of Visits.

- A. Inherent in the initial response of the host denomination is the acceptance of additional travel costs of the traveling party. Expenses not normally incurred in travel to the traveling party's own mission works shall be paid by the host denomination. The host denomination should indicate a maximum amount they are willing to expend if that may be a concern.
- B. The traveling party shall attempt to hold the additional travel cost within reason, using modest, yet practical levels of travel styles accustomed to by their own denomination.
- C. The additional travel expenses may include travel expenses by common carrier, meals, lodging, tips, taxi, communication cost, and other incidental expenses.

V. Report of Visits.

The follow-up report to the host denomination shall include pictures and a written report expressing the strengths and needs of the field station and recommendations. The proper relaying of messages from the field station shall be given.

VI. Nature and Length of this Agreement.

The participation in this agreement is entirely voluntary as a whole and for particular trips. Withdrawal from the arrangement shall be in writing to each participating denomination and shall be effective upon the receipt of such notice.

VII. Amendments to this Agreement.

- A. Amendments may be made to this agreement by giving a thirty (30) day notice in writing to each participating denomination prior to the Church Leadership Conference for the purpose of having a meeting. The denomination requesting the amendment shall be responsible for arranging the suitable time and place acceptable to all the denominations.
- B. Amendments needing immediate action may be obtained in writing by mail by any participant. The written change shall be distributed to each of the participating denominations.

7. The World Missions Board will appoint leadership for all foreign fields. This procedure would be part of the World Mission Policy and By-Laws. The process is as follows:
 - A. The Superintendent of each country will be selected by the World Missions Executive Director and the Latin American Representative. This appointee will be approved by the World Missions Board and the General Executive Board. The General Executive Board of each country will be selected by sending eight (8) names to the World Missions Executive Director and the Latin American Representative. RACIAL RECONCILIATION STATEMENT

The present-day Pentecostal movement had its beginning at the Azusa Street Revival. People of all races and both genders participated. However, the movement soon divided along racial lines, and in some cases, women were relegated to subordinate roles.

We understand that the body of Christ makes no allowances for discrimination based on carnal prejudices such as race and gender. The Bible teaches that Adam and Eve were, in fact, the parents of all people on the earth, themselves being created by God the father, and He declared His handiwork to be very good and acceptable to Him.

As a people, redeemed by the atoning blood of Jesus Christ, we commit ourselves to reconciliation and harmony among people of diverse races. The Congregational Holiness Church, recognizing the ethnic diversity in the body of Christ, will work for and strengthen the unity of all believers.

We, of the Congregational Holiness Church, pray and trust that all members of the body of Christ will lead the way in initiating effective racial reconciliation.
